

95th Birthday

Bertha Clyde

Bertha Murdock Clyde will be 95 years young on July 13th. Everyone has known Bertha for the fun-loving person that she is. Nobody grows old by living a number of years, but by losing their sense of humor.

Do you remember when a parade wasn't a parade unless Bertha was clowning around or how she stole the show in the plays she acted in? Those were the good old days.

Bertha is the daughter of Alphonzo Brigham and Phoebe Lee and was born in Heber City in 1887. She had a brother Alphonzo (Fonie) and a sister Florence Tuft; both are deceased. She married Edward Y. Clyde June 30, 1905. Their children are Willis, Fawn Johnson, Venice Dillon, Donna Dillon, and Maxine Carlile. She has 19 grandchildren, 70 great-grandchildren, and 27 great-great-grandchildren; a direct posterity of 121.

Edward died August 16, 1944, so she has done remarkably well to have been a widow for 38 years and survived the many family parties that the family has had.

For many years Bertha was chairman of the Cancer Drive for Wasatch County. She is a honorary member of the State Cancer Board. She was active in the Primary organization and was always willing to entertain with her wit for any social meeting.

She will be happy to meet her many friends on Sunday afternoon on July 10th.
